

Twenty Penn Coachmen RV's pulled into Dogwood Acres in Newville, PA for our second rally of the year. It is a beautiful campground. Even though it was in the 90's, most of us were in the shaded area and had a good time.

On Sunday some of the "Early Birds" gathered for dinner at a local diner in Carlisle. It was nice and we got to get caught up with some friends we haven't seen for awhile. After dinner we gathered around a campfire and enjoyed stories our members shared.

Monday morning gave us time to relax and enjoy "the family" time. We gathered together for a "Pot Luck" dinner. What a nice variety of food. You can never go wrong with a Penn Coachmen Pot Luck! Everything was so good! After dinner it was straight to business. We had a membership meeting. We covered a lot of information, both on FRVA and EAMA (Eastern Area). Everyone was brought up-to-date on how things were going and what the future looks like. We then discussed some of the Penn Coachmen issues..."membership (sitting at around 150 "F" numbers), audit, trailer and future rallies.

We had a fantastic day on Tuesday. We gathered for a light breakfast then we carpooled over to the “Cumberland County Historical Society Museum. We had a speaker give us some information on the museum and then we were allowed to walk around and check it out. What nice displays they had. It was a very informative museum and we had lots of time to enjoy it.

We then had lunch at the museum before heading over to the Lindt Chocolate Outlet Store...Oh my goodness...so much chocolate. We were given a very informative talk about chocolate and how Lindt Chocolate was founded. We even got lots of samples...before we were let loose in picking out what Lindor truffles we wanted to take home with us. Of course you couldn't just buy one...so many to pick from.

Oh what a tasty tour!!!

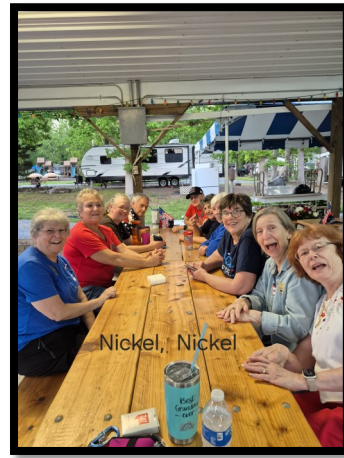

After our tasty afternoon we got back to camp and enjoyed a BBQ catered dinner. It was also a "patriotic night" most of us wore our patriotic colors! After dinner we had a nice presentation on the American Flag. Our members who served in the military posed with the speakers for a quick picture!

One night we played “Nickel Nickel”, card game. We had lots of laughs and shared some great stories.

We always have a good time playing. Mary Ann won, for the first time! Lunch is on her at Jen Bowman, our Rally Master for this event, and her hosts did a fantastic job with this rally. I truly believe everyone had a good time and enjoyed being back with our “family friends”. Wednesday we had another light breakfast and said our good-byes. Until we meet again, I wish you all safe travels!
