YOU'RE INVITED TO JOIN

Foothills Travelers

This Is Your Invitation To Share In The Fun Of Chapter Membership

One of the best parts of FRVA is meeting other members along the way. And one of the best ways to meet members is to join an FRVA chapter. Find and connect with like-minded RVers who share your same interests, hobbies, and love for RVing. Who knows, maybe you're even from the same town!

ABOUT US

Foothills Travelers live within a 100-mile radius of Greenville, South Carolina, but we welcome members from all over. We have approximately 28 members and enjoy spending time with friends in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and beyond. Rally fees average $25-$45, excluding expenses for camping. A typical rally includes breakfast on two mornings, dinner on Friday night, and a covered dish supper on Saturday night. April and October rallies are also business meetings. Members enjoy board and card games, sightseeing and hiking. Chapter dues are $15 per year with a $10 initiation fee for new members.
